CERT HE IN BIBLICAL STUDIES & THEOLOGY

A two-year, part-time, distance-learning course that is thoroughly Bible-centred. Suitable for anyone wanting to delve deeper into the scriptures.

What is the syllabus?

The course has three core modules:

- Gospel of Mark • Pentateuch (Genesis - Deuteronomy)
- The Doctrine of God

Students then choose to take three further modules from:

- Romans • Reformation Church History
- Early Church History • Apologetics • Acts

What does it involve?

Each of the modules is spread over 12 weeks. Students are given a course textbook to work through and set some independent study exercises. At the end of each module students are expected to submit assignments; some modules have examinations.

What support do I get?

The college offers a telephone tutorial service that students can use to ask questions about course work or other matters.

What qualification will I get?

Successful students receive a Certificate in Higher Education in Biblical Studies & Theology validated by Middlesex University, London.

What qualifications do I need before I start?

We don't ask for any formal qualifications but if you haven't studied theology before we recommend that you undertake our access course.

When can I begin?

You can begin studying in January, April or September. Enrolment forms are accepted at any time.

How much does it cost?

The access course costs between £30-£60 depending on the option taken. A University registration fee of £525 is payable at the start of the course. Each module then costs £120.
