CERT HE IN BIBLICAL STUDIES & MINISTRY

A two year, part-time, distance-learning course that is thoroughly Bible-centred. Suitable for anyone involved in ministry in the local church. Modules include: biblical studies, mission, preaching, pastoral care, youth & children's work and administration.

What is the syllabus?

The course has three core modules:

• Gospel of Mark • Pentateuch
(Genesis–Deuteronomy)

• Christian Mission and Ministry

Students then choose to take three further modules from:

• Administration • Apologetics • Doctrine
of God • Romans • Pastoral Care
• Preaching • Youth & Children's Work

What does it involve?

Each of the modules is spread over 12 weeks. Students are given a study guide and two background reading books to work through and are set some independent study exercises. At the end of each module students are expected to submit assignments; some modules
have examinations.

What support do I get?

The college offers a telephone tutorial service that students can use to ask questions about course work or other matters.

What qualification will I get?

Successful students receive a Certificate of Higher Education in Biblical Studies and Ministry, validated by Middlesex University, London.

What qualifications do I need before I start?

We don't ask for any formal qualifications but do suggest that students who have not studied theology before pass an access course prior to beginning the Cert HE.

When can I begin?

You can begin studying in January, April or September. Application forms can be submitted at any time.

How much does it cost?

The access course costs between £30-£60 depending on the option taken.
A University registration fee of £525 is payable at the start of the course. Each module then costs £120.
